STEPHANIE RUSSELL

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS | SHRM-CP

SRUSSELL@CLH.CPA

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

In 2000, Stephanie Russell likely thought becoming part of CLH through an inter-cooperative school/work program was going to be a short-term arrangement. Instead, Stephanie continued employment at CLH: she worked her way from file clerk to front desk coordinator, was promoted to administrative team management and later human resources management, and then became the firm's director of operations in 2024. Stephanie earned a Certified Professional credential from the Society of Human Resource Management. She is a member of the International Society of Human Resource Management and the Lakeshore Society of Human Resource Management.

In her position, Stephanie leads human resources and ensures CLH's multi-office internal processes run smoothly, including managing firm resources, assisting with operational strategy development, and providing guidance for the firm's leadership.
