RYIN OTT

SENIOR ACCOUNTANT

ROTT@CLH.CPA

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Ryin Ott joined the CLH team as a staff accountant in 2024, bringing with her a blend of early professional experience and a strong commitment to teamwork. She became a senior accountant in 2026. Her career in accounting began in high school and continued through college, where she served as a part-time financial data clerk for multiple county offices. This early exposure provided her with a foundation in understanding financial processes. Ryin earned a B.S. in Accounting from Purdue University Fort Wayne and is a member of the Indiana CPA Society.

Passionate about helping others, Ryin thrives in team-oriented environments. In her role, she provides general accounting services to clients, including tax preparation, tax planning, bookkeeping, and payroll. She is dedicated to contributing to a collaborative and supportive workplace, where she can leverage her skills to assist both colleagues and clients.
